Regional Conference Update

I'm sorry to report that the next Eastern Region NATS Conference and Student Auditions has had to be cancelled. We were very much looking forward to being hosted by the Québec District at the University of Ottawa, but due to changes in space availability at the university, it wasn't going to be possible. Denis Bouldreault had put together a first-rate program, and he and I looked at several alternatives to help make it work, but without adequate space it just didn't seem wise to go forward.

I regret any inconvenience the cancellation may cause, and hope that we will be able to hold other regional events in the near future. In the meantime I encourage members to participate in the many chapter activities taking place. Upcoming activities are listed in the newsletter – and will be updated on the regional and chapter websites as new information becomes available. Thank you for your understanding.

Chapter Open House Idea

The Central New York Finger Lakes NATS Chapter hosted its first Open House this fall. The event was part of the CNYFL-NATS Weekend, which includes the annual Student Auditions and business meeting. The Open House was intended to recruit new members, to connect with NATS members in the area who may not be active in the Chapter, and to reconnect with former members whose memberships may have lapsed. Chapter President Mario Martinez thought the event was a success, and said they plan to have the Open House every year as part of the CNYFL-NATS Weekend.

This may be an idea that could work for other Chapters as well...
